

DIANE CONSOLINO

Success Coach • Speaker • Rule Breaker

Bio:

Diane genuinely loves teaching.

Diane is a dynamic, fun and engaging speaker. At every event Diane is committed to giving a powerful training that is told with humor and insight. Each talk is sprinkled with personal stories about herself and the people in her life. Real life experiences, struggles and lessons that people can relate to and learn from. Humor permits Diane to tackle even the toughest issues, it also allows the audience to go deeper and get more from the conversations. Each topic is built around real actionable steps. She teaches tools that translate into results.

Diane has a rich and diverse background. After graduating from the University of Minnesota, Mankato and attending the University of Minnesota Graduate Program of Long Term Care and Management, she started her career in the Healthcare Industry. She successfully worked with culturally diverse staff to improve workflow, productivity and care through innovative training programs and process re-engineering. She managed budgets of $3-5 million and staff of 80-130 people.

Diane has been a practitioner and teacher of personal transformation for over fifteen years. She has a strong private coaching business. Her clients are professionals and business owners from many different industries, job titles, and professions. They are smart, success oriented, high achievers who want more out of their business, career and life. Diane's business is dedicated to teaching people how to ask for what they want, to overcome obstacles, and achieve targeted results with velocity while feeling joyful in the process. Her proven methods and programs provide her clients with the clarity, courage and confidence to meet their goals.

Whether Diane is speaking to a large audience, teaching a course or talking over a cup of coffee with one person — the message will resonate.
